Book report Kanae (The three legged kettle)
Today I went to the library with Onei-chan and read a novel called 'If dogs disappeared from the world'
I was so moved
When I also thought about Nyaago (the cat I keep at home) disappearing, I thought that it was sad while I was reading.
I thought it would be nice to read something aside from LNs every so often.
And I got tired after going outside for the first time in a while.

KEEP TRYING, KANAE.
